It is central to people's safety and health, to involvement in their communities, employment and education, and to using transport, banking and shopping. Provision of communication in accessible formats (e.g. Braille, Auslan, Easy Read formats) can have a positive impact on the health of and opportunities for people with disability. With technology becoming a key means to participation across all elements of individual and community life, it is important that technology is inclusive of all Australians.
3			Disability Discrimination Act 1992 No. 135, 1992 https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/C2022C00087	3 Objects The objects of this Act are: (a) to eliminate, as far as possible, discrimination against persons on the ground of disability in the areas of: (i) work, accommodation, education, access to premises, clubs and sport; and (ii) the provision of goods, facilities, services and land; and (iii) existing laws; and (iv) the administration of Commonwealth laws and programs ; and (b) to ensure, as far as practicable, that persons with disabilities have the same rights to equality before the law as the rest of the community; and (c) to promote recognition and acceptance within the community of the principle that persons with disabilities have the same fundamental rights as the rest of the community.
4				4 Interpretation (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears: administrative office means: (a) an office established by, or an appointment made under, a law of the Commonwealth; and (b) an office established by, or an appointment made under, a law of a Territory; and (c) an appointment made by the Governor-General or a Minister otherwise than under a law of the Commonwealth or of a Territory; and (d) an appointment as a director of an incorporated company that is a public authority of the Commonwealth; but does not include: (e) an office of member of the Assembly, member of the Executive, or Minister within the meaning of the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988; or (f) an office of member of the Legislative Assembly, member of the Council or Minister of the Territory, within the meaning of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978; or (h) an office or appointment in the Australian Public Service; or (i) an office of a person employed or engaged under the Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984.
5				Commonwealth employee means a person who: (a) is appointed or engaged under the Public Service Act 1999; (b) holds an administrative office; or (c) is employed by a public authority of the Commonwealth; or (d) holds an office or appointment in the Commonwealth Teaching Service or is employed as a temporary employee under the Commonwealth Teaching Service Act 1972; or (e) is employed under the Australian Security Intelligence Organisation Act 1979 or the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918; or (f) is a member of the Defence Force; or (g) is the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police, a Deputy Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police, an AFP employee or a special member of the Australian Federal Police (all within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979); or (h) is a person employed or engaged under the Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984. Note: See also section 124 (Commonwealth taken to be employer of Commonwealth employees). Commonwealth law means: (a) an Act, or a regulation, rule, by-law or determination made under an Act; or (b) an ordinance of a Territory, or a regulation, rule, by-law or determination made under an ordinance of a Territory; or (c) an order or award made under a law referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
6				services includes: (a) services relating to banking, insurance, superannuation and the provision of grants, loans, credit or finance; or (b) services relating to entertainment, recreation or refreshment; or (c) services relating to transport or travel; or (d) services relating to telecommunications; or (e) services of the kind provided by the members of any profession or trade; or (f) services of the kind provided by a government, a government authority or a local government body.
7				24 Goods, services and facilities It is unlawful for a person who, whether for payment or not, provides goods or services, or makes facilities available, to discriminate against another person on the ground of the other person's disability: (a) by refusing to provide the other person with those goods or services or to make those facilities available to the other person; or (b) in the terms or conditions on which the first-mentioned person provides the other person with those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person; or (c) in the manner in which the first-mentioned person provides the other person with those goods or services or makes those facilities available to the other person.

The regulatory letters are decided by the government and contain the requirements and expectations the government has for MTM. ACTIVITY 1 Objectives and reporting requirements Grant income The Authority for Available Media shall report the distribution of any grant income between stable grants, grants from intergovernmental bodies and non-stable grants in a note to the income statement. Agenda 2030 Sweden will implement Agenda 2030 for economically, socially and environmentally sustainable development through a coherent policy nationally and internationally. The implementation shall be characterized by the agenda's principle that no one shall be left out. The authority must report on how the authority has collaborated and what results have been achieved that contribute to achieving the global goals for sustainable development. For Media Easy to Read, costs have decreased by SEK 14,725,000, which is due to redistribution of salary costs to other benefits in connection with the establishment of MTM in Malmö on 1 January 2020. Also because administrative costs have been redistributed for the same reason. Costs for Media Culture decreased during 2020 by SEK 9,121,000, which is largely due to reduced personnel costs but also because the costs for IT, consulting fees and production decreased. For Media Education, costs were virtually unchanged in 2020 compared with the previous year. The costs for newspapers have been affected by several factors. Among other things, the number of home visits has decreased in 2020 due to the pandemic, which has meant that the number of subscribers has decreased. Likewise, no major development or marketing efforts have been made during the year as the focus has been on establishing the business in Malmö. The authority's task is to make easy-to-read literature available and to publish and distribute easy-to-read literature in it to the extent that the needs are not met in the commercial market. The authority shall make easy-to-read news information available and support its publication and distribution independent easy to read the newspaper 8 Pages. The authority must also direct support too easy to read for school. For the news magazine 8 Sidor, 8sidor.se and for the website All voters , the continuous publication and interaction with readers is important, including through All voters ' question and answer service and the function Kommen tarsfalt for all, where readers can react in a simple and immediate way. an article or like the magazine. Those who have difficulty expressing themselves in writing can use symbols. The LL publishing house's publishing increased in 2020 from 8 to 11 titles. In a qualitative user survey with representatives from the target group of readers with intellectual disabilities, the publisher examined how baking recipes are written to be accessible and easy to follow. The survey resulted in the book Bake Cakes which contains ten easy-to-read recipes (easy-to-read level 1, easiest).
