

Mapping Lithuania's Human Rights System

Analyses of Foreign Practices

COUNTRIES

PROCESS

OUTPUTS

- 6 Challenges in Lithuania's human rights system addressed as identified by representatives of state institutions and NGOs
- 13 Foreign countries' practices assessed
- 2 Documents developed to discuss foreign practices
- 6 Lingering issues in specific human rights areas in Lithuania addressed as identified in international and national recommendations

OVERVIEW

Document	Countries	Conclusions for Lithuania
Analysis of Human Rights Systems in Foreign Countries	Czech Republic, Finland, Ireland, Poland	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Address the issue of leadership in human rights policy</li> <li>Evaluate processes for developing human rights strategies and actions</li> <li>Assess inter-institutional cooperation, consider coordinating it at the governmental level.</li> <li>Review the process of implementation and monitoring of international recommendations</li> <li>Examine practices of cooperation with NGOs and civil society</li> <li>Survey civil servants' human rights awareness and assess mandatory training feasibility</li> </ul>
Analysis of Human Rights Safeguards in Foreign Countries	Canada, Denmark, Estonia, Iceland, Norway, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Consider implementing Equal Pay Standard, and raise awareness to combat violence</li> <li>Strengthen and customize social rehabilitation approach in Lithuanian prisons</li> <li>Improve asylum process management system and migrant integration policies</li> <li>Mandate national agencies and empower NGOs to safeguard minority rights</li> <li>Adopt comprehensive LGBTQIA+ inclusion measures and strong legal framework</li> <li>Construct impact on human rights assessment tool for AI and digital projects</li> </ul>

Project managers: Agnė Pakšytė (agne.paksyte@kurkl.lt) and Aušra Raulušonytė (ausra.raulusonyte@kurkl.lt)
Project owner: Aurelija Baltikauskaitė (aurelija.baltikauskaite@tm.lt), Advisor at the International Cooperation and Human Rights Policy Group, The Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania
Project duration: 2023.09.18 – 2024.03.01
Analyses prepared: 2024 February